

Practical issues in developing a family centred, multi-generation focussed law practice - helping create more sustainable families

Presenter: Michael Perkins

- Facing the ethical dilemma's of family group clients
- Business challenges in offering client complexity driven professional services.
- Establishing skill recognition in family centred practice across professions
- Preventative medicine - facilitating more effective family governance in the business, investment and personal domains of client interest
- Longevity and the sandwich generation - key challenges to capital preservation needed for multi-generation family management
- Passing on family values; the role of philanthropy in facilitating transfer of family culture to the next generation.
- Limits on the usefulness of lawyers in family estate operations